Welcome to Obadiah

Obadiah announces judgment against Edom for pride and violence against Jacob. Its single chapter describes misplaced confidence, indifference to a brother's calamity, and the coming day of the LORD.

This booklet contains one puzzle with 20 words drawn from Obadiah in the King James Version. Read the chapter before or after completing the search to consider its language and message.

Notice the images of lofty dwellings, the eagle, the mountain of Esau, and mount Zion. Reflect on the contrast between proud security and the LORD's authority over the nations.

Read the warnings and closing promises within the full chapter. The answer key gives a verse reference for each search word so that you can return to its context.

“For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.”

Obadiah 1:15 (KJV)

The Journey Continues

You have searched through words from Obadiah's single chapter. Return to the complete passage and consider its warning against pride and violence, its announcement of the day of the LORD, and its closing declaration of His kingdom.

Consider these questions as you reflect:

- How did Edom's pride produce false confidence?
- What does the chapter say about the treatment of a brother?
- How does the day of the LORD bring accountability?
- How does the closing verse direct attention to the LORD?

"And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's."

Obadiah 1:21 (KJV)

Continue into Jonah to consider the LORD's call, the prophet's response, and God's mercy toward Nineveh.
